HUM 1: Modern Humanities: Arts & Ideas

What makes us human? How do we document the human experience? Since humans have been able, we have used art, music, film, literature, philosophy, and history to understand and record our world. In this course, students will explore modern 20th century American culture as a way to develop a deeper connection to those who have come before us as well as to our society today. Today's world is powered by social media like Facebook and Snapchat, and today's youth have full conversations in abbreviations and emojis. How did we get here, and why should we care? Take the class to find out.
