Re: Proposed Deletion of the Liberal Arts Children's Studies Concentration

Date: October 16, 2022

The Children's Studies Concentration is no longer relevant to the needs of the Education Program or the College and has unused for several years now. It also no longer transfers to programs at the senior colleges. Furthermore, it is extremely difficult to complete given our current Liberal Arts degree requirements.

Proposed sunset date: Fall 2023

Although there has not been any faculty or departmental support for this concentration for a number of years there are students currently enrolled.

Fall 2016	Fall 2017	Fall 2018	Fall 2019	Fall 2020
15	10	8	7	18

Upon approval by the Curriculum Committee the Education Program within the Behavioral Science Department will:

- Stop enrolling students in the Concentration starting Spring 2023.
- Contact via email, phone and mail as necessary, each student currently enrolled in the concentration and still an active student at KCC, apprise them of the change in their program and provide individual advisement regarding the alignment of their degree program and their career aspirations.
- Contact via mail, each student who is currently registered in the Concentration and who is not currently registered KCC student, that the concentration has been discontinued and encourage them to reach out for additional guidance.
